

*“One must first be a human being.
All true art grows out of that which is distinctively human.”*

“Edvard Grieg’s profound love for Norway combined with his extraordinary talent made him our great national composer. Yet he believed that great art knows no boundaries, and his music moves people of all nations even today. In the spirit of this great artist, the Edvard Grieg Society strives to foster a deeper understanding in America of the rich cultural traditions of Scandinavia, and to promote intercultural exchange between artists from both sides of the Atlantic.”
